Welcome to the Presidio of San Francisco

Whether you have an hour, a day, or a year, the Presidio offers endless attractions. Start your visit at the visitor center in the historic Officers' Club, where you can learn more about the Presidio's historic and natural features. With this map to guide you, explore on foot, by bicycle, or on the Presidigo shuttle bus system. Enjoy the Presidio!

Help Protect the Park's Resources

The Presidio is a national park because of its rich cultural and natural heritage. Please protect sensitive plant communities, waterbird protection areas, and fragile historic structures. Stay on established trails and out of fenced areas. Dog walkers must obey regulations and pick up after their pets.

Accessibility

The Main Post and the Golden Gate Promenade are wheelchair accessible, as are buildings open to the public.
